The library will be offering to provide our patrons with books during the time the Library is closed due to the circumstances with the Coronavirus (COVID – 19). Residents may e-mail, call or access through their library account to request materials. We will place the items in a plastic bag and place them in a tote outside the east parking lot door.

This service will be available Monday-Friday 10:00 - 4:00, until further notice.

The City of Aurora will continue to provide critical public services while taking steps to reduce the risk of exposure to the virus for our staff and customers when possible. Employees of the Alice M. Farr Library and City Hall will continue to conduct business as usual and will be available by phone or email.

The City of Aurora offers several options to allow customers and/or residents to continue to conduct business as usual. To pay a bill you can place your payment in the drop box west of City Hall, Pay with a credit/debit card over the phone at 402-694-6992 or online at www.cityofaurora.org. For general business questions or information you can call City Hall at 402-694-6992 or visit our website at www.cityofaurora.org.

Information regarding the status of City facilities will be updated and made available on our website at www.cityofaurora.org and click the Coronavirus COVID-19 Resources link.
